

DID YOU KNOW?

Hepatitis B (HBV) and Pregnancy

- All pregnant people should be tested for HBV during every pregnancy
- Pregnant people who do not have HBV should get vaccinated to protect themselves!
- If you have HBV, it can pass to your baby during birth
- Pregnant people who do have HBV can take steps to keep the baby protected and take care of their own health
- Talk to your healthcare provider about HBV!

Scan to learn more about where to get vaccinated near you!